Good By from Karen and Karen:

We are extremely proud to have been a part of the GELN group for the last few years. We thank you for your willingness to change for the purpose of collaboration. It is hard work and takes time to gain the potential efficiencies, quality resources and access by all. The value of the GELN is just emerging and will continue to prove to be a valuable resource for all.

It has been our privilege to work with such passionate, hardworking professionals.

“The beautiful thing about learning is that no one can take it away from you.”
